'MUSIC FOR TWO KEYBOARDS' TO FEATURE HARPSICHORDS

The concert with Phyllis Benson (Music) and Raymond Boese, "Music for Two Keyboards," scheduled for Sunday evening will be unusual for this area because of the instruments utilized, two harpsichords and a Tracker organ. No other school in the area has this equipment.

Mrs. Benson, instructor of harpsichord, and Boese, professor emeritus of organ at the University of Redlands, will play rarely heard works from the 18th century during the concert, which begins at 7:30 p.m. in the Recital Hall. Admission is $3.50 general, $1.75 students. The performance launches the Music at Cal State series.

ART CLUB PLANS AN OCTOBERFEST

The Art Club will hold an Octoberfest from 11:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., Thursday, in the patio by the Visual Arts Building. Tickets, limited to 100 people, are on sale from noon to 1 p.m., Monday through Wednesday, in the Student Gallery, VA 102A. A $4 ticket buys a meal of homemade sausage, sauerkraut, cheese fondue on potatoes, pickled eggs, pretzels, apple cider and coffee. An $8 ticket buys the meal and a homemade Octoberfest mug.

ESCAPE PLANNED TO UNIVERSAL STUDIES

The Escape program is sponsoring a tour of Universal Studios on Saturday, Oct. 16. Registration should be made by 4 p.m. today at the Student Union desk. Participation is limited to 25 people. The $11 cost includes transportation and admission.

HOMEMADE ICE CREAM DURING NOON HOUR

The next four Tuesdays will feature homemade ice cream during the noon hour in the Student Union patio. This Tuesday's flavors are toasted coconut pineapple and chocolate. Proceeds will go into the Support Fund of the Services to Students with Disabilities program.

NEW AMERICAN PHOTOS THEME OF ART EXHIBIT

Trends in photographic art by known and emerging artists will be featured in a show opening with a reception at 7 p.m., Friday, Oct. 15, in the Art Gallery.

"New American Photographs" will display works by 27 artists who exemplify new and traditional styles in color and black-and-white photography, photocopy, instant photography and mixed media. The show closes Wednesday, Nov. 24. Admission is free.

Among the 120 pieces selected is a series by Fiona Hall of Rochester, N.Y., titled "Painting Reconstruction," in which she recreates well-known images by Matisse, Cezanne, Van Gough and other artists by using objects of similar color and appearance. The resulting photographs are paired with a photographic copy of the original for display.

Other examples include works by Paul Berger, who employs the conventions of magazine layout to construct complex relationships between still photos and television, typeset captions and computer text; Lorie Novak of Boston, who interplays projected images, colored gels and interior spaces to imply stage sets; and James Barker of Bethel, Alaska, who has documented the Eskimo's stark lifestyle.

Scott Ward (Art) is curator of the show. Photographer Sant Subagh K. Khalsa is associate curator. A catalog is available for $2. Gallery hours are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday; 7 to 9 p.m., Monday through Thursday; and 1 to 4 p.m., Saturday and Sunday.

RICHTERS TO GIVE ACTING WORKSHOP

Ken Richters, the actor who Friday, Oct. 15, will portray Mark Twain, will give a free acting workshop from noon to 2 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 14, in the Multipurpose Room of the Student Union.

Richters is a faculty member of the Connecticut School of Broadcasting and has appeared in numerous television, film and theatre productions. He has been presenting "Mark Twain on Tour" nationwide for more than four years.

His performance on Oct. 15 will be at 8:15 p.m. in the Recital Hall. In this one-man show, Richters portrays a casual and witty Twain conversing with the audience. Advance tickets for assigned seating are on sale from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday, at the Student Union desk. Admission is $3.50 students, $6 general. The event is sponsored by the Associated Students.

FLU SHOTS GIVEN AT HEALTH CENTER

The Health Center is offering flu shots to students, faculty and staff who are over the age of 60 or have a debilitating disease such as heart disease, diabetes or lung problems. Injections will be given Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. to noon and 2 to 4 p.m.

The shots cover the same type flu as last year and consist of two shots four weeks apart for those who were not immunized last year. Persons who were immunized need only one shot this year.

Faculty and staff will be charged $3, which is payable at the Bursar's Office before coming to the Health Center with the receipt. Flu shots are not recommended for young, healthy adults.

SECOND JAZZERCISE CLASS ADDED

Because of overwhelming interest in the Jazzercise class held Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, a second section is being added. The first class will be from 3:15 to 4:15 p.m. and the second from 4:45 to 5:45 p.m. Elise Traynum, AS president, has requested students and others who can come early to take the first session. Additional signups will be accepted at the classes next Tuesday. The program, sponsored by the Associated Students, drew more than 60 participants. Anna Hernandez, a certified Jazzercise teacher, will lead both classes.
